PRIDAY. JULY 23 1860.

FOR PRESIDENT,

JAMES A. GARFIELD

Ot Ohio.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

CHESTER A. ARTHUR, Of New York.

The Hancock boom is on the wane The Garfield boom is rising.

We make the prediction that Hancock will not carry a N orthern State.

It is the Greeley campaign over again. The Democrats are playing the same game they played in 1872. The result will be the same.

The Democratic shots at Garfield have all been fired. They have exhausted their ammunition. Garfield comes ont unscathed and is booming.

As far back as 1865 the rebels of the South were in favor of the nomination of General Hancock for President. They voted solid for him in the National convention that year. They know their man.

There are Democrats who have beheved for twenty years that they were right. They are considerably dazed by their party's admission that it has always been wrong. They are disgusted, and will not vote for the soldier candidate.

How will the Democratic orators now explain to the people their greenback and anti National Bank speeches of last year and all the years since the war? English is a hard-money man and a National banker, and a believer in the National Bank system.

The Democrats -the old liners, the genume, honest Democrats-do not take to Hancock's war record. They will not vote for him. They can not bring themselves to believe that they have always been wrong-tuey can not stoop to play the hypocrite.

The Democratic leaders are ceasing their talk about Hancock's brilliant was record. They can not rally the old all these reasons, in my opinion, the inliners to the butcher of their old-time terests of the Republic demand the elecfriends and ailies. Hancock is already too of James A. Garfield to the Presia dead duck. The fate of Horace Greeley already stares hun in the face.

The more Hancock's civil record is

The nach Helsock's until record to investigated, the more a consequent to the state of the state had no hesitancy in saying that he of the committee. would be prepared to respond in behalf of the Republican nominees. He would prepare himself for that as a licans are generally pleased at the President's reply, and say that it msures entire harmony in the party and for the first time in years, actively par- mento chimney, the top of which was consequent success.

SCHURE'S SPRECE.

Hon. Carl Schurs, Secretary of the Interior, addressed an immense assemblage of Republicans at the Wigwam in Indianapolis, on Tuesday night. The telegraphic synopsis of his speech is to the effect that he, in a masterly way, proceeded to set forth the reasons why the Republican party, under Garfield, would do vastly better work for the country than the Democracy under Hancock. The chances of the Greenbackers were not visible ones. alluded with some personal pride to the record of the administration now about to surrender its duties into other hands. and while not free from blemish, it was in every way creditable. He reviewed at considerable length the unsavory record of the Democratic party on the question of secession, slavery and finance. It was not a question of bonoring a worthy General, but of giving needs. He pointed out that an army officer, who had had no previous train ing as a statesman, was at a sail disadvantage in handling the affairs of statecraft, in which he was wholly or even often do wrongly, get discouraged or the government, no matter how pure, able or steadfast he might be. He declared that there has been wonderful progress in civil service reform during the present administration, and that the Democratic party was pledged by instinct and its platform to a mockery of such reform. Such a policy carried out would in four years do almost irreparable injury to the country, which is rather than retrogression into the spoils the election of Porter in Indiana, and

"The Democracy may, in the course of time, gain the confidence of the people, but that should be only when repuduationists and advocates of unsound money have ceased to be in its ranks so powerful and influential an element as serionery to threaten the great economical interests of the country. When by energetic and successful action in protecting the rights of the voter, whether white or black, whether Republican or Democratic, in all parts of the country, and by the suppression of fraud at the ballot-box through the healthy and irresistable power of the public opinion within itself, it would have won the right to appear in its platforms as the protector of freedom and the purity of elections, and when it will find it no longer necessary to discard the ablest of its statesmen and to put a General of the Army, who has never been anything but a soldier, in nomination for the Presidency, to make for itself a cerinficute of loyalty to the settlement of the great conflicts of the past, and for

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WAPHINGTON, D. C., July 15, 1880. By this time everyone has read Gen eral Garfield's letter of acceptance and praised or criticized it according to their his scheme for the sale of the whole political preferences. To the Republi-treasure. His plan embraces three can idea it is a model paper. It is a parts. The first will comprise the hisclear, ,courageous and able statement of Republican issues and principles, and will contain the scarce minerals, and is a fitting auxiliary to the Chicago will be placed in the Mueseum of the platform. It is written in a plain sim-He ple style, but still in its very simplicity can be seen shining out the goundeur of thought, and the strong convictions of to go to form a State fine art fund. . M. the writer. No dictionary is needed to Turquet has had an inventory made of define any word in the letter, and no attempt at a splurge is made. It is, in fact, a paper that will add greatly to the and is one of extreme whiteness and wisdom of its beliefs will add many the country the kind of a President it with either party, to the Republican ranks. We wait now, but impatiently for General Hancock's letter, if he writes one. There are reports that the General will not enter upon a discussion of the great political questions, but will partially unskilled, and that he would in a formal manner, and in writing, acbecome frequently bewildered, would copt the Democratic nomination. The reckless, and do incomparable injury to Thus far put forward by the Democratic party is that the people desire a change. There are two facts, in connection with this alleged desire the people should consider before they vote! In 1860 after twenty years of Democratic rule, the government found it hard work to realize 90 cents on the dollar for its 6 per cent bonds. In 1880 after twenty years of Republican rule, the government 4 per cent. bonds sell rapidly at coming to demand further advance $1 03. Does any voter in this land de-ruby, weighing fifty-six carats and valued rather than retrogression into the spoils aire a change from the present, properties at 50,000s. There is also an amethyst sire a change from the present prospersystem. He made a strong appeal for ity back to the days of Democratic adversity? The doubt, if it can be called

SENATOR CONKLING'S

Attitude in the present campaign, is dispelled. The Senator has announced ums. that he will, after the short vacation he now proposes to take make speeches in his own, and other States. This information coming as it does, direct from the Senator, is a wet blanket upon the h pes of the New York Democrats. They well know that if Senator Conkling enters actively into the campaign, their chances will be poor in that State. Tais information will be welcome not only in New York, but by Republicans all over the country.

SENATOR BLAINE

Has left the Virginia Springs, to which Demogratic congratulation, and is now in New York. He will continue his journey home in a few days, and upou his arrival in Maine will proceed at once to organize the September election. The campaign and its termination look exceedingly encouraging to Republicans as the time for voting approaches, and there is no denying the vein on the 2400 level of the Union Couien fert. In the Sierra Nevada, nearly 1,000 feet north of the math incline, to also a spot where are found indications of a bulge, there being found coming in at that point from the northward three parallel veins of rich ore, each saveral syrand lake, where there, the with the parallel veins of the mine should fall in the old Sages.

THE FRENCH CROWN JEWELS.

M. Turquet, the official selected by the French Minister of Finance and Budget Committee to arrange the sale of the French crown jewels, has, a foreign correspondent writes, submitted toric jewels and atones, and will be placed in the Louvre. The second part Ecole des Mines, while the third por tion, composed of royal and imperial jewelry, will be put up to anction and sold to the highest bidder, the proceeds this princely treasure. One of the most temous of the diamonds is the one called Regent. It weighs 136% carats REPUBLICAN STRENGTH,
One that by the purity, loyalty, and wisdom of its beliefs will add many to bought by the Duke of Orleans, then Regent of France, of Pitt, the Governor to be seen as the control of Fort St. George, in the year 1717, or class of the property of the stone of the property of the p tor £135,000. When rough the stone weighed 411 carats, and the cutting cost £2,000. Pitt had purchased this stone in Golconda, of Jamelchund, a Hindoo merchant, as he states in a pamphlet published to clear himself from the reports about his having stolen it. This dimmond, however, was actually stolen from the Garde Meuble in 1792, but was restored in a mysterious manner. After this it was recut at a cost of £3,. 500, an operation which took two years to perform. Napoleon I. was so enamored of this gem that he had it sat on the pommel of his sword. Some idea of the size of the Regent may given when it is stated that it is thirty carats larger than the Kob-i-noor, the latter weighing 106 1-16 carats.

Another remarkable object in the sale is a round pearl weighing over twenty-seven carats and valued at 200, 000f., and still another is a necklace of pearls, styled collier de la reme, composed of twenty-five pearls and worth 996,700f. Next comes a long, clear of more than thir een carats, valued at the large sum of 600,000f., and a sap-phire of 132 carets, worth 100,000f. By selling the jewels of the third class M. Turquet expects to reslize supple funds for the purches of works of art wherewith to curich the national muse-

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Dr. Tanner complained of vertigo and sickness at the stomach yesterday morning, but at noon was feeling better. He received a letter from Dr. W. B. Lee, of Marion, Ill., who says he himself has fasted 24 days, and another from a Philadelphia woman who, pleading leap year privileges, offers him marriage. When last taken his pulse was 75, rather weak and more compressible respiration, 16. At noon he entered on Glendale—Boys from 6 to 18, 17; the 25th day of his fast.

The New York Times has a dispatch from Galena, Ill., which says: It may be authoritatively stated that General Grant has about completed arrangements which will make necessary his living in New York City. He has been tendered a position, which he has accepted conditionally, that will compel the change of residence mentioned. The Times' correspondent is not permitted to state the nature of the business that is to occupy Grant's attention, but full particulars will no doubt be given. The ex-President's trip to New Mexico was one involving investigation to the enterprise which he has been called upon to manage, and was not one of pleasure, as reported. He was accompanied to Lus Vegas by interested parties, who joined him at Kansas City. His early return to Galena is looked for, and that he will make immediate arrangements to remove to New York on his arrival may be regarded as certain. $1 per yard.
